

Abū Bakr Ibn al-‘Arabī (d. 543/1148): Legacy and Impact on the Transmission of al-Ghazālī’s (d. 505/1111) Thought in al-Andalus

Ilyass Amharar

Présentation d’ouvrage

• Date et heure

Jeudi 26 juin, 17 h 30-18 h 30
Salle 3220

• Références de l’ouvrage

Brill, 2024, 260 p.

Résumé

Gathering the proceedings of a symposium organized on the occasion of the 900th anniversary of the qādī Ibn al-‘Arabī’s (d. 543/1148) passing, this volume brings together a diverse array of contributions highlighting his legacy, his relationship with his master al-Ghazālī (d. 505/1111), his unparalleled role in the transmission of Islamic knowledge in al-Andalus, and his lasting impact on various disciplines, including hadīth, theology, Islamic law, Quranic exegesis, legal theory, grammar, adab, and Sufism. This book, written by internationally recognized scholars, not only commemorates the scholarly legacy of Ibn al-‘Arabī, but also illustrates how his intellectual teachings have shaped the landscape of Islamic thought in the Western Muslim world. Proudly, this book is the most accomplished reference bringing together recent advances on ongoing research around the qādī Ibn al-‘Arabī. Composed of articles written in English, Arabic, and French, it will be of interest to specialists as well as the general public keen to learn more about the intellectual history of al-Andalus.

Moyen-Orient et
Mondes Musulmans
Groupement d'Intérêt Scientifique